Insignia Senior Living to manage senior community

By THE NEWNAN TIMES-HERALD | Dec. 09, 2015 - 7:27 AM

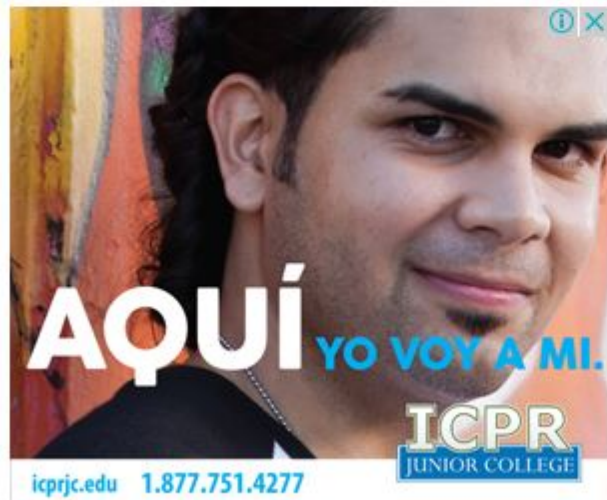

San Juan, Puerto Rico - Milton L. Cruz, Esq., President of Insignia Senior Living, announced that Savannah Court of Newnan will be managed by Insignia and will be renamed Insignia of Newnan.

An affiliated entity owns the real estate assets, which were formerly leased and managed by an unrelated third party. Insignia of Newnan is a Senior Living Community licensed for 60 beds and located at 27 Belt Road in Newnan.

"We are happy to work with the Newnan community in achieving our mission of 'providing a safe and joyful environment where our residents feel valued and loved,'" said Cruz.

Insignia was founded in 2002 and owns and operates communities in Georgia, Florida, and Puerto Rico.

In Georgia, the company manages Tapestry House and Gardens of Roswell, both in Alpharetta, Insignia of Sandy Springs and Insignia of Savannah.
